

Studying Anthropology in Lisbon | Living in a different world

Departamento de Antropologia do ISCE-IUL
CRIA-IUL

To think the world through anthropological lenses will capacitate students to understand the world from its different perspectives, backgrounds, and life experiences. This is not only a challenging learning opportunity but also a transformative experience, as it will form students into more open-minded persons. Likewise, it also opens doors of opportunities in other parts of the world that would otherwise be inaccessible.

Learning Anthropology means making the strange familiar and the familiar strange. From “Exploring Portuguese culture” to broad topics on social questions of contemporary society, this course aims at preparing students to be capable of understanding, of interpreting, and of explaining to the wider society how human diversity is articulated in the contemporary world.

In the 2nd Semester Students may choose between:

- Make the equivalent to a minor in Anthropology, or a full semester of an undergraduate degree, through the enrollment in 5 different courses, each with 6 ECTS Credits of the Bologna System: 6 ECTS X 5 courses = 30 Credit Units.
- Pick out individual curricular units from Anthropology (see XXX) and complement them with other courses lectured at ISCTE-IUL. See the list of curricular units (enrollment subject to availability).

Incoming Students at ISCTE-IUL may enjoy living in one of the most attractive European capitals with an exciting cultural and social life and attend a full semester of the undergraduate program in Anthropology.
