8 – Failure to submit the requested documents under the terms of the present public notice, their submission beyond the stipulated deadline or the submission of false documents will result in the applicant's exclusion from the recruitment process.

V. Assessment criterion of absolute merit

When the applications are duly substantiated in conformity with the requirements in the present public notice, the recruitment of the applicants based on absolute merit will depend on their track record in the subject area of History, speciality of History of Energy, Economics and Innovation in the Contemporary Period, that should cumulatively meet the following minimum requirements:

- a) Publication of at least ten scientific texts, in the last ten years, in the form of articles, scientific books or chapters of books, of which at least five articles should have been published or definitively accepted for publication in the subject area of History, in scientific journals with attributed impact factor indexed in the Web of Science or in SCOPUS;
- b) Coordination a research project with funding;
- c) Successful supervision/coordination of two 3rd cycle theses;
- d) Coordination of two courses or holding of university management positions at the level of governing bodies or central coordination of decentralised teaching and research organic units;

VI. Method of selection and assessment criteria

1 – Applicants approved on the basis of absolute merit will be subject to the curricular assessment selection method, pursuant to the criteria defined in the following point.

2 – Assessment criteria

The order of the applicants in the tender will be substantiated by their scientific and pedagogical merit in the subject area of History, considering the profile defined in the present public notice and the following factors:

A - Scientific merit (50 %)

The assessment of scientific merit will consider the following items:

A-1) Scientific production (20%) – works, projects, books, chapters in books, articles in scientific journals and in minutes of meetings of scientific nature (conferences, colloquiums, congresses, seminars, days, forums, etc.), active participation in national or international events, and organisation of national or international scientific events. The assessment of this parameter should consider the quantity, originality and diversity of the output, the scientific autonomy revealed, the degree of internationalisation, recognition by the scientific community (awards or other forms of recognition and distinction by the scientific, academic or professional community) and the impact of the scientific production.

A-2) Scientific projects (10%) – participation in scientific projects with national or international funding (public or private), as well as projects without funding. The assessment of this parameter should consider the quantity, degree of incorporation of the project in national or international networks, the competitive nature of the project in terms of funding, its contribution in terms of assets and resources for the research structures and the type of involvement of the researcher (coordinator or participant).

A-3) Coordination and scientific leadership (10%) – creation and leadership of research teams, scientific management of organic and research units, coordination of scientific and academic management bodies of institutes, schools, departments and research units, and integration of governing bodies of national and international scientific associations. The assessment of this parameter should consider the duration of the activity and extent of the position.

A-4) Scientific assessment (10%) – participation in national or international boards for academic examinations and participation in national or international boards for assessment and scientific consulting of scholarships, projects, researchers or research units, participation in committees of scientific events, active collaboration in editing, evaluation and review of national or international scientific publications. The assessment of this parameter should consider the number, the role performed and diversity of the activities.

B - Pedagogical merit (30%).

The assessment of pedagogical merit will consider the following items:

B-1) Teaching activity (12%) – lecturing of curricular units, pedagogical performance, involvement in the management of the curricular units (lecturer or coordinator) and production of pedagogical manuals or other publications of pedagogical nature, coordination of courses and lecturing in foreign and international universities. The assessment of this parameter should consider the number and diversity of the curricular units lectured and the assessment of pedagogical performance.

B-2) Pedagogical innovation (8%) – promotion of pedagogical initiatives aimed at improving the teaching and learning processes, preparation of new graduate and post-graduate courses or new curricular units, and restructuring of study plans or curricular units, participation in pedagogical structures, promotion and stimulation of processes to improve the pedagogical activity of study cycles or other educational activities. The assessment of this parameter should consider the number, nature and diversity of the activities.

B-3) Supervision (10%) — supervision of dissertations, theses and post-doctoral projects, and scientific excellence of the supervised work. The assessment of this parameter should consider the number and diversity of the supervision activities, including those already completed and those in course.

C – University outreach (5%)

The assessment of participation in university outreach tasks will consider the provision of services aimed at enhancing the economic and social value of knowledge, programmes of continuous training, exchange of experiences, courses and seminars for the purpose of disseminating knowledge, and other relevant activities for research, namely service to the community in the context of the organisation, services of cooperation and consulting to other institutions.

D – Service to the institution (15%)

The assessment of participation in governing and management boards of higher education establishments will consider the following: accomplishment of activities derived from participation in university management bodies, promotion of the institution, ad hoc committees, recruitment of new students and all other activities for the regular functioning of higher education establishments.

3 – Voting order and methods

The members of the selection panel decide through nominal voting based on the adopted assessment criteria. The voting of each member of the selection panel should be substantiated by the classification of each applicant on a scale of whole numbers from 0 to 100, which is the result of the weighted sum of the partial classifications attributed to each indicator, also on a scale of whole numbers from 0 to 100, using the weightings defined for each parameter in point VI.2 (assessment criteria).

If the ordering of all the members of the selection panel is identical, the process is deemed to be concluded.

Otherwise, voting is conducted for the first place. If an applicant obtains more than half the votes, she/he will be positioned in first place. If none of the applicants obtains more than half the votes, the voting will be repeated after removal of the applicant who received the least votes in the previous round. The process will be repeated until an applicant obtains more than half the votes, being classified in first place. This same process is repeated so as to obtain the applicant classified in second place, and so on successively until an ordered list of all the applicants is obtained.

In the case of a tie during the process, the chairperson has the casting vote.

4. The selection panel decides on the need to conduct public hearings of the recruited applicants, which, should they take place, will follow the rules established in articles 8, number 2, and 20 of the Regulation for Recruitment, Selection and Hiring of Teaching Staff of ISCTE-IUL.

VII. Constitution of the Selection Panel

The selection panel is chaired, by delegation of the Rector of ISCTE-IUL, by Dr António Manuel Hipólito Firmino da Costa, Full Professor at ISCTE - Instituto Universitário de Lisboa, and composed of the following professors who, in the opinion of the Scientific Council, belong to the subject area for which the tender is opened:

Dr Irene Maria de Montezuma de Carvalho Mendes Vaquinhas, Full Professor at Faculdade de Letras, Universidade de Coimbra;

Dr António Jorge Pais Costa Pinto, Coordinating Researcher at Instituto de Ciências Sociais, Universidade de Lisboa.

Dr Hélder Adegar Teixeira Dias Fonseca, Full Professor at Universidade de Évora;

Dr António José Barreiros Telo, Full Professor at Academia Militar;

Dr Magda de Avelar Pinheiro, retired Full Professor at ISCTE - Instituto Universitário de Lisboa;

VIII. The interested parties shall be informed by notification sent to their electronic address of the lists of recruited and excluded applicants as well as the list of final classification and ordering of the applicants. The tender process can be consulted by the applicants at the Human Resources Unit, under the terms indicated in the aforesaid notification.

IX. In compliance with subparagraph h) of article 9 of the Constitution, the Public Administration, as an employer, promotes a policy of equal opportunities between men and women in access to employment and professional progression, scrupulously taking measures to prevent all and any form of discrimination.
